

Curriculum Vitae

Anders Broström

October 2007

Education

- 1994-1997: "Gymnasium", natural science programme, Höglandsskolan, Bromma
- 1997-1999: Undergraduate courses in engineering, economics and german at Linköping University
- 2000-2001: Undergraduate courses in engineering at ETH Zürich
- 2001-2003: Undergraduate courses in engineering and economics at the Royal Institute of Technology
- 2007 - Doctoral studies on innovation and university-industry cooperation

Academic exams

- 2003: Master of Science in industrial engineering and management – international (civilingenjör)

Positions

- Part-time 1998-2004: Free-lance writer in the fields of technology, research and university-related issues. Occasional consultancy assignments, business development for SMEs.
- June 1999-July 2000: Editor in chief of Magazine at the student union LinTek, Linköping university
- Aug 2003- : Researcher at the Swedish Institute for Studies in Education and Research (SISTER)

International

Language skills: Fluency in English and German

Off work

- Cannoing, skiing, sailing, trekking etc
- Various engagements in student associations during 1997-2001
- Various engagements within the scout movement and as care-taker (autism)

Publications

Scientific peer-reviewed journal articles or anthology chapters:

1. "Investing to locate near research universities – what are the perceived benefits?" (Broström, McKelvey, Sandström). Accepted for publication in McKelvy, M., M. Holmén, 2007, Mad as a Hatter: Learning to Compete in European Universities, Routledge.
2. "Does Knowledge Diffusion between University and Industry Increase Innovativeness?" (Löf, Broström). Accepted for publication in Journal of Technology Transfer.

3. "What do we know about Firms' Research Collaboration with Universities? New Quantitative and Qualitative Evidence" (Broström, Löf) i Heshmati, A., Y.-B. Sohn och Y.-R. Kim, 2007, Commercialization and Transfer of Technology: Major Country Case Studies, Nova Publishers.

Scientific reports:

1. "Collaboration for Competitiveness – Towards a new basis for regional innovation policy", SISTER Working paper 2007:63.
2. "Vad kan staten lära av en effektanalys av såddfinansieringsprogrammet?" (Broström, Anaya-Carlsson, Deiacco, Scheffer), SISTER Working paper 2007:62
3. "Högskola och region - ett trevande förhållande. Reflektioner över exemplet Västra Götalandsregionen" (Broström, Geschwind), SISTER Working paper 2007: 61
4. "Kartläggning av holdingbolag kring universitet och högskolor" (Broström, Scheffer), Underlag till Peter Nygårds utredning om holdingbolagens framtid, augusti 2006.
5. "The KTH Entrepreneurial Faculty Project" (Källblad, Broström), VINNOVA report, November 2005
6. "Vägval för Örebro universitet och Mälardalens högskola - utredning av förutsättningarna för fusion, allians eller annan samverkan" (Broström, Deiacco, Melin). SISTER Working paper 38:2005.
7. "Indikatorer för det intellektuella kapitalets rörelsemönster", SISTER report series on Intellectual capital
8. "Tillgängliga data", SISTER report series on Intellectual capital
9. "Stockholm på världsmarknaden – möjligheter för RTP-arbetet", SISTER Working paper 33:2004 (also published in VISANU publication series).
10. "Tekniska universitet på världsmarknaden? - motiv och förutsättningar för en strategisk allians mellan KTH och Chalmers", (Broström, Deiacco, Sörlin). SISTER Working paper 32:2004.
11. "Kartläggning av högre utbildning och universitets- och högskoleforskning i Mälardalen (Broström, Löf, Sigfridsson)", SISTER Working paper 27:2003.

Popular science articles / debate articles (selection):

1. "Utblick Europa: Universiteten ömsar skinn", Teknik & Vetenskap no 3-2005
2. "Den tredje statsmakten och universitetens trollkarlar", Teknik & Vetenskap no 4-2004,